The event, held at the college premises, brought together educators, scholars, and students to discuss and explore the rich heritage of Indian languages and literature, alongside the intricacies of the NAAC's revised binary accreditation process.

The workshop was inaugurated by the esteemed Chairman of Swami Vivekananda College of Education, Mr. Subrata Kumar Biswas, whose insightful remarks underscored the importance of linguistic diversity and the need for quality assurance in higher education. The principal of the college, Dr. Subhra Palit, extended a warm welcome to all participants and emphasized the college's commitment to academic excellence and cultural preservation.

The highlight of the workshop was the keynote address delivered by Mr. Dilip Mangraj, a distinguished scholar in the field of accreditation processes.
